

ENGLISH SUMMARY

(Mount Clipping in Space Below)

Badalamenti was selling heroin to the Corleone group.

Palermo. Business is business; while the mafia war waged on GAETANO BADALAMENTI, "loser boss", sold high grades of heroin to BERNARDO BRUSCA, connected to the CORLEONE group, hence, "winner".

It was a matter of marketing: At the time BADALAMENTI was the sole possessor of heroin; the CORLEONE group were the only one with the money to buy it and the outlet to distribute it.

The money of this operation was mostly handled by MICHELANGELO AIELLO, owner of various local properties and ex-mayor of BAGHERIA (PALERMO).

DELLA CHIESA MATTER

For the slaughter of DELLA CHIESA his wife and escort officer, DOMENICO RUSSO, the judges postponed the trial involving the brothers MICHELE GRECO and SALVATORE GRECO, SALVATORE RIINA, ROSARIO RICCOBONO, PINO GRECO, MARIO PRESTIFILIPPO, BERNARDO PROVENZANO, BERNARDO BRUSCA, SALVATORE SCAGLIONE, ANTONIO GERACI, PIPPA CALO, GIOVANNI SCADUTO, IGNAZIO MOTISI, ANDREA DI CARLO and NITTO SANTAPAOLA. This is the entire summit COMMISSION- of "LA COSA NOSTRA".

According to the judges, DELLA CHIESA died because "the summit COMMISSION- of the COSA NOSTRA decided so". They "wanted the death of the Prefect because they feared the alliance with the magistrates". The death of the general (Della Chiesa) was considered an important event in the strategy of the mafia, which considered him a dangerous adversary. The "winning" mafia feared that DELLA CHIESA would hinder the consolidation for total control sought by the winning faction CORLEONE group- already clear after the killing of STEFANO BONTADE.

IL PROGRESSO

(Indicate page, name of newspaper, city and state) Pg 10/A

Nov. 10, 1985

Date

Edition

Badalamenti was selling heroin to the Corleone group.

Della Chiesa matter.

Character

92A-6235-1

Classification

Submitting Office

NEWARK

Indexing

1

10/A

DALL'ITALIA

Palermo. Il maxiprocesso alla mafia

Badalamenti vendeva l'eroina ai corleonesi

PALERMO: Gli affari sono affari: mentre infuria ancora la guerra di mafia, Gaetano Badalamenti, "perdente" vende forti tamente la impossibilità di mettere insieme la somma richiesta. Non si conosce il prezzo finale della transazione, ma i "campioni" spediti e giunti in Usa avevano

92A-6235-1-42

SEARCHED	INDEXED
SERIALIZED	FILED
NOV 20 1985
FBI - NEWARK

b6
b7C